I have no intention of reinstating the prior company P12000103540 – I was hoping I could set up a new company with same name – I am the principle owner of this new one and the old one. Is this possible? If not what are my options? Change the name? How much to reinstate?

Thank you.

You can file as a new corp., but you have to do the following:

The name designated in your document is unavailable because it is the same as or not distinguishable from an existing entity. If the principals are the same in both entities, please send a letter or affidavit advising us of this association, along with your document so that we may complete the filing process. OR you may respond to this e-mail stating the above and that you have no intention of reinstating the corporation listed below.

To make the necessary corrections to your filing, return to our website at www.sunbiz.org and click on "E-Filing Services", and then choose the type of filing you are trying to correct. Pull down the vertical scroll bar until you see the two blocks entitled "Tracking Number" and "Pin Number," which are located on the right hand side of the page. Next, enter your tracking number and pin number. Both of these numbers are listed in the top portion of this email. Next, simply click on "update filing" to access the document you previously submitted to our office. Please disregard this letter if you have contacted our office and were advised how to correct your document online. Please allow 1-2 business days for your corrected document to be processed by this office.

If you have any questions concerning your filing please call 850-245-6052.
