Dear Mr. Solomon:

We E-filed articles of incorporation for the above named entities. They were rejected because the names were the same or similar to names already on file. Since there is common ownership between the entities with the same names and the new entities, we wish to discontinue the old entities and re-establish them under new identification numbers. Let this serve as your authorization to file the new entities as the existing entities are of no use to the ourselves.

Very truly,

Nasser Razack, MD
