Article 5
Board of Directors and Officers

(a) The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors, which may exercise all such powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by law directed or required to be exercised or done only by the stockholders. Each director must be an individual who is duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized to practice law in the State of Florida. The stockholders of the Corporation may remove any director from office at any time with or without cause in accordance with the provisions of the Bylaws.

(b) The full Board of Directors of the Corporation shall at all times comprise at least one (1) member, the exact number of directors to be fixed from time to time by the directors or stockholders of the Corporation or in accordance with its Bylaws. A quorum for the transaction of business at meetings of the directors shall be a majority of the number of directors determined from time to time to constitute the entire Board of Directors, and the act of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the directors.

(c) The initial directors of the Corporation shall hold office until the earlier to occur of the first annual meeting of stockholders of the Corporation or the first special meeting of stockholders of the Corporation one of the purposes of which is to elect directors of the Corporation, or until such earlier time as a successor or successors has or have been duly elected and qualified. The names and mailing addresses of the initial directors are:

Article 7
Amendment of Articles of Incorporation

The Corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provisions contained in these Articles of Incorporation in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by statute, and all rights conferred upon the stockholders herein are subject to this reservation; provided, however, that these Articles of Incorporation as now in effect or hereafter amended shall not be inconsistent with or contrary to, but shall be subordinate to, the laws of the State of Florida and of the United States.

Article 8
Bylaws

The power to adopt the Bylaws of the Corporation, to alter, amend or repeal the Bylaws, or to adopt new Bylaws, shall be vested in the Board of Directors of the Corporation; provided, however, that any bylaw or amendment thereto as adopted by the Board of Directors may be altered, amended or repealed by vote of the stockholders entitled to vote thereon, or a new bylaw in lieu thereof may be adopted by the stockholders, and the stockholders may prescribe in any bylaw made by them that such bylaw shall not be altered, amended or repealed by the Board of Directors. The Bylaws of the Corporation shall be for the government of the Corporation and may contain any provisions or requirements for the management or conduct of the affairs and business of the Corporation; provided, however, that the Bylaws shall not be inconsistent with or contrary to, but shall be subordinate to, the provisions of these Articles of Incorporation, including as hereafter amended, and the laws of the State of Florida and of the United States.

Article 9
Affiliated Transactions

The provisions of Section 607.0901, Florida Statutes, relating to affiliated transactions, shall not apply to the Corporation or to transactions with the Corporation.
