I had changed the application to Aparicio & Sons, Inc. when you initially wrote to me, then was when I emailed to ask you if the adding the S made a difference. Do I resubmit a change for Aparicio & Son, Inc. Or do you do everything else from here?

The reinstatement application actually belongs to me, from when I lived in Miami. I have emails that prove that from 2009. I am not reinstating it because it is not a fictitious name company I will be using. I need a FL Profit Articles of Incorporation which is why I filled out FL Profit Articles of Incorporation Application . The fictitious Application will not be reinstated. So I can I still have my company name if that is the case?

Actually suffixes do not make a difference, Inc, Incorporated, LLC, Corporation

Neither does adding an "s"

Does the name have to have a major change? Can I just add SONS instead if SON or can I put instead of INC. put INCORPORATED or CORP?

Thanks,

Jorge Aparicio
