ARTICLE X

In the event that the corporation enters into contracts or transacts business with one or more of its directors, or with any firm of which one or more of its directors are members or employees, or with any other corporation or association of which one or more of its Directors or shareholders, officers, or employees, such contract shall not be invalidated or in any wise affected by the fact that such Director or Directors have or may have interests therein which might be adverse to the interests of the corporation, even though the vote of the Director or Directors having such adverse interests shall have been necessary to obligate the corporation upon such contract or obligation; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that in any such case, the fact of such interest shall be disclosed to the other directors or shareholders acting upon or in reference to such contract or transaction. No director or directors having disclosed such adverse interests shall be liable to the corporation or to any shareholders or creditor thereof or to any person for the loss incurred by it under or by reason of any such contract or transaction, nor shall any such Director or Directors be accountable for any gains or profits realized thereon. PROVIDED. ALSO, that such contract and transaction shall, at the same time at which it was entered into have been a reasonable one to have been entered into and shall have been upon terms that at the time were fair.

ARTICLE XI

Each Director and officer of the corporation, whether or not in office, shall be indemnified by the corporation against all costs and expenses reasonably incurred or imposed upon him in connection with or arising out of any claim, demand, action, suit or proceedings in which he may be involved or to which he may be a party by reason of his being or having been a Director or an officer of the corporation (said expenses to include attorney's fees and other costs of reasonable settlements made with a view of curtailment of costs of litigation), except in relation to matters as to which he finally be adjudged in any such action, suit or proceedings or have been derelict in the performance of his duty, as such officer or director. Such right or indemnification shall be executed of any other rights to which a Director or an officer may be entitled under any regulations, agreements, a vote of stockholders or to which he may be entitled as a matter of law, and the right of indemnification shall inure to the benefit of heirs, executors, and the administrators of any such director or officer.

ARTICLE XII

A director shall not be liable for dividends illegally declared, distributions, illegally made to stockholders or any other action taken by reliance in good faith upon the financial statements of the corporation represented to him to be correct by an officer having charge of its books or account or financial statements of the corporation represented to him to be correct by an officer having charge of its books or account or financial statement certified by a Certified Public Accountant to fairly reflect the financial condition of the corporation; nor shall he be liable, if in good faith in determining the amount available for dividends or distribution, he considers the assets to be of their book value.

ARTICLE XIII

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended in the manner provided by law. Every amendment shall be approved by the Board of Directors, proposed by them to the stockholders' meeting by fifty-one percent (51%) of the stock entitled to vote thereon, unless all of the Directors and all the stockholders sign a written statement manifesting their intention that a certain amendment of these articles of Incorporation be adopted.

ARTICLE XIV

Any action that maybe taken at a meeting of the shareholders of this corporation may be taken without a meeting, if consent in writing setting forth of the action shall be signed by all, but not less than all, of the shareholders of the corporation entitled to vote on the action and shall be filed by the secretary of the corporation. This consent shall have the same effect as a unanimous vote at the shareholders' meeting. If all the Directors, severally or collectively, likewise, consent in writing or writings evidencing their consent are filed with the secretary of the corporation, the action shall be valid as though it had been authorized at a meeting of the Board of Directors.
