Re: Release Use of Not-For-Profit Name for Filing as a Corporation

Dear Corporations Representative:

I am writing on behalf of the Directors of Soft Network Users Group, Inc. (Document #N99000006520) as the Incorporator. Earlier today, I filed the dissolution of Soft Network Users Group, Inc. as a registered Florida Not-For-Profit entity through the on-line portal. Immediately following that, I filed the Articles of Incorporation to register Soft Network Users Group, Inc. (SNUG) as a Profit Corporation, also through the on-line portal. Shortly thereafter, I was informed that I should have mailed two copies of the new Articles along with a letter indicating that I would like the Division to release the name from the non-profit in order for the Division to process the request to incorporate under the same name.

I apologize for the confusion and respectfully request that the Division release the use of the name Soft Network Users Group, Inc. so that it can reform as a for profit corporation. I have enclosed two copies of the Articles for your review and processing and included the cover letter. I paid $52.50 for the dissolution and another $52.50 for the on-line Articles of Incorporation filing. Please let me know if that is sufficient payment to process the transactions.

Please don't hesitate to contact me by telephone at (727) 204-0550 or email at cmguella1@gmail.com if there are any issues with my requests. Thank you in advance for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Christopher M. Guella
