L. If amending or adding additional Articles, enter change(s) here:
(Attach additional sheets, if necessary). (Be specific)

1. The first step in the process of creating a business plan is to conduct a market research. This involves identifying the target market, understanding the needs and preferences of the customers, and analyzing the competition. Market research can be done through various methods, including surveys, interviews, and focus groups.

2. Once the market research is complete, the next step is to develop a business model. This involves determining how the business will generate revenue and how it will manage its costs. The business model should be based on the findings of the market research and should be realistic and achievable.

3. The third step is to create a financial plan. This involves estimating the costs of the business and determining the expected revenue. The financial plan should include a budget, a cash flow statement, and a break-even analysis. It should also include a contingency plan for unexpected expenses or changes in the market.

4. The fourth step is to develop a marketing plan. This involves identifying the marketing strategies that will be used to promote the business and attract customers. The marketing plan should include a mix of online and offline marketing, such as social media, email marketing, and traditional advertising.

5. The final step is to create a business plan document. This document should be clear, concise, and easy to read. It should include all the information gathered in the previous steps and should be presented in a professional and appealing way. The business plan document is the final product of the process and is used to secure funding and guide the business.

7. If an amendment provides for an exchange, reclassification, or cancellation of issued shares, provisions for implementing the amendment if not contained in the amendment itself;
(If not applicable, indicate N/A)
