ARTICLE X - REGULATION OF BUSINESS

The following additional provisions are inserted for the management of the business and for the conduct of the affairs of the corporation, and to create, define, limit, and regulate the powers of the corporation, and the shareholders:

10. If the by-laws of the corporation so provide, any meeting of the shareholders may be held either within or without the State of Florida and the books and records of the corporation may be kept at such place or places outside the State of Florida as may be designated, at any time, or from time to time, by the shareholders, unless otherwise provided by the laws of Florida.

11. No contract or other transaction between the Corporation and one or more of its shareholders, or any other corporation, firm, association or entity in which one or more of its shareholders are directors or officers, or are financially interested, shall be either void or voidable because of such relationship or interest or because such shareholder or shareholders are present at the meeting which authorizes, approves or ratifies such contract or transaction or because his or their wishes are counted for such purpose if:

The fact of such relationship or interest is disclosed or known to the shareholders which authorize, approve or ratify the contract or transaction by a vote or consent sufficient for the purpose without counting the votes or consents of such interested shareholders; or

The fact of such relationship or interest is disclosed or known to the shareholders entitled to vote and they authorize, approve or ratify such contract or transaction by vote or written consent; or

The contract or transaction is fair and reasonable as to the corporation at the time it is authorized by the shareholders.

Such common or interested shareholders may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders which authorizes, approves or ratifies such contract or transaction.

C. The stock in the corporation is issued pursuant to the provisions of Section 1244 of the Internal Revenue Code.

D. In the event a certificate of stock is lost, stolen or destroyed, the corporation may issue a replacement certificate without requiring the surrender of the certificate for cancellation, provided that the shareholder in whose name the certificate was registered shall provide an Affidavit setting forth the circumstances under which such certificate was lost, stolen or destroyed and provided said shareholder agrees in writing to indemnify and hold the corporation harmless from and against any and all claims, actions, and suits, whether groundless or otherwise, and from and against any and all liabilities, losses, damages, costs, charges, counsel fees, and other expenses, of every nature and character, which the corporation at any time shall or may sustain or incur by reason of any claim or demand which may be made as a result of the issuance of such new certificate.

E. The corporation and the holders of a majority or more of the shares of the corporation shall have the power to enter into an agreement restricting or limiting the sale, transfer, assignment, pledge, or hypothecation of the shares of the corporation or any part thereof. If at any time the holders of a majority or more of the shares of the corporation shall enter into an agreement, restricting or limiting the sale, transfer, assignment, pledge or hypothecation of the shares of the corporation or any other part thereof to which agreement the corporation shall become a party, the corporation shall thereupon observe and carry out on its part the term of any such agreement and shall refuse to recognize any sale, transfer, assignment, pledge or hypothecation of any of the shares covered by such agreement, unless the same be in conformity with the terms and conditions of such agreement provided that a copy of such agreement be filed in the principal office of the corporation, and provided further, that notice of the existence of such provision be noted conspicuously on the face and back of each and every certificate of shares subject to the terms and conditions of any such agreement.

F. The corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any or all of the provisions contained in these Articles of Incorporation, in the manner now or thereafter prescribed by statute, and all rights conferred upon the shareholders herein are granted subject to this reservation.

ARTICLE XI - PRE-EMPTIVE RIGHT

Every stockholder shall on the sale for cash of any new stock of the same class as that which he already holds, have the right to purchase his pro-rata share thereof (as nearly as may be done without issuances of fractional shares) at the price at which it is offered to others.
