To produce corporate assets of any other corporation and engage in the same or other character of business.

To guarantee, endorse, purchase, hold, sell, transfer, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise acquire or dispose of the shares of capital stock of, or any bonds, securities, or other evidences or indebtedness created by other corporations of the State of Florida, or any other state or government, and while owner of such stock to exercise all the rights, powers and privileges or ownership, including the right to vote such stock.

The corporation will also serve as a trustee for other companies, and will receive pension proceeds and distribute them accordingly as advised by the corporation's clients. The company will be governed by the rules of the Internal Revenue Service under Section 401A.

Article III

Stock

The maximum number of shares of stock that the corporation is authorized to issue is 50,000 at a par value of three ($3.00) dollars per share.

- A. Shareholders of the corporation shall have the preemptive right to acquire their pro rata share of stock of the corporation and for all issues of the one class of common stock of the corporation and for all issues of the one class of common stock of the corporation no matter when authorized, and for whatever consideration is contemplated to be received by the corporation, including but not limited to, other property, services, acquisition of other corporations, shares, or property through merger or extinguishments of debts. Preemptive rights shall apply to the resistance of all redeemed or otherwise acquired shares, including the resistance of treasury shares.

- B. This article pertaining to preemptive rights may not be amended or deleted without the unanimous vote of the shareholders.
- C. No issue of stock of the corporation shall take place unless the shareholders of the corporation shall unanimously approve the price at which the stock is to be issued.
- D. There shall be no more than five (5) shareholders of this corporation at any time. Said shareholders may be real persons and/or legal entities such as corporations, associations, or partnerships.

Article IV

Restrictions on Transfer of Shares

No shareholder shall have the right or power to pledge, sell, or otherwise dispose of, except by will, any share or shares of this company without first offering the said share or shares for sale to the company and shareholders at the then book value.

Article V
