Article VI-Other Matters

Section 6.01. The period of the corporation duration is perpetual.

Section 6.02. No stockholder of the Company shall, by reason of his holding shares of any class, have any preemptive or preferential right to purchase or subscribe to any shares of any class of the Company, now or hereafter to be authorized, or any notes, debentures, bonds, or other securities convertible into or carrying options or warrants to purchase shares of any class, now or hereafter to be authorized, whether or not the issuance of any such shares, or such notes, debentures, bonds or other securities would adversely affect dividend or voting rights of such stockholder, other than such rights, if any, as the Board of Directors in its discretion may fix; and the Board of Directors may issue shares of any class of the Company, or any notes, debentures, bonds, or other securities convertible into or carrying options or warrants to purchase shares of any class, without offering any such shares of any class, either in whole or in part, to the existing stockholders of any class.

Section 6.03. The vote of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote and thus represented at a meeting at which a quorum (66 2/3 super majority) is present, shall be the act of the shareholders meeting unless the vote of a greater number is otherwise required by law or the Bylaws.

Section 6.04. The President of the corporation shall make application with and submit any-and-all claims and/or all disputes of any nature or kind, whether corporate or public in nature to mediation and/or binding arbitration with the American Heritage Arbitration Association. The ADR powers of the corporation shall be exercised under the rules of American Heritage Arbitration Association and in accordance with the laws of the State of Domicile. The location of the mediation or arbitration shall be where the place of administration is for the corporation.

Section 6.05. Notwithstanding the choice of law, any "no contest" provision within the corporation shall be broadly construed and given full force and effect.

H17000044675

H17000044675

Section 6.06. The parties will attempt in good faith to resolve through negotiation any dispute, claims or controversy arising out of or relating to this corporation or the operation of the business of the corporation. Either party may initiate negotiations by providing written notice in letter form to the other party, setting forth the subject of the dispute and the relief requested. The recipient of such notice shall respond within five days with a written statement of its position on, and recommended solution to, the dispute. If the dispute is not resolved by this exchange of correspondence, then representatives of each party with full settlement authority will meet at a mutually agreeable time and place within ten days of the date of the initial notice in order to exchange relevant information and perspectives, and to attempt to resolve the dispute. If the dispute is not resolved by these negotiations, the parties will consider and decide whether the dispute should be submitted for mediation or arbitration under the laws of the State of Florida.

Section 6.07. The parties covenant that they will participate in the mediation in good faith, and that they will share equally in its costs. All offers, promises, conduct and statements, whether oral or written, made in the course of the mediation by any of the parties, their agents, employees, experts and attorneys, and by the mediator, are confidential, privileged and inadmissible for any purpose, including impeachment, in any arbitration or other proceeding involving the parties, provided that evidence that is otherwise admissible or discoverable shall not be rendered inadmissible or non-discoverable as a result of its use in the mediation.

Section 6.08. Any dispute, claim or action arising out of or relating to this corporation or breach, termination, enforcement, interpretation or validity thereof, including the determination of the scope or applicability of these Articles to arbitrate, shall be determined by binding arbitration. The binding arbitration shall be administered in accordance with the rules of American Arbitration Association pursuant to its Arbitration Rules and Procedures. Judgment on the Award may be entered in any court having jurisdiction.

Section 6.09. The arbitrator shall have the authority orders such discovery, by way of deposition, interrogatory, document production, or otherwise, as the arbitrator considers necessary to a full and fair exploration of the issues in dispute, consistent with the expedited nature of arbitration.

Section 6.10. The arbitrator shall, in the Award, allocate all the costs of the arbitration (and the mediation, if applicable), including the fees of the arbitrator and the reasonable attorneys' fees of the prevailing party, against the party who did not prevail.
