Attention Vince Smith:

This letter is in regard to a corporate entity named Ransom Family Enterprise Inc. in which I request to be dissolved. The corporation has been administratively dissolved, but I, as the registered agent, CEO and majority shareholder, request that the corporation be dissolved in it's entirety with no further intention of reinstating or doing business of any matter. I have recently filed for a new corporation under the same name, but the conflict of having indistinguishable names between the two corporations has risen. I request the recent filing of Ransom Family Enterprises Inc. be put into full effect once this matter is resolved.

I have filed articles of incorporation twice in the month of March, each with a different suffix. One is Inc., and one is Corp. I wish to keep Ransom Family Enterprise Inc., and I have made sure I've included the correct filing numbers regarding the conflict, in case of confusion between the two recent filings.

Please call my business line if any further conflict exists.
