ARTICLE IV

The aggregate number of shares which the corporation shall have authority to issue is One Million (1,000,000) shares of a single class of Common Stock having a par value of one tenth of a cent ($.001) per share. A statement of the preferences, privileges, and restrictions granted to or imposed upon the respective classes of shares or the holders thereof is as follows:

A. Common Shares. The terms of the Common Shares of the corporation shall be as follows:

(1) Dividends. Whenever cash dividends upon the Preferred Shares of all series thereof at the time outstanding, to the extent of the preference to which such shares are entitled, shall have been paid in full for all past dividend periods, or declared and set apart for payment, dividends, payable in cash, stock, or otherwise, as may be determined by the Board of Directors, may be declared by the Board of Directors and paid from time to time to the holders of the Common Shares out of the remaining net profits or surplus of the corporation.

(2) Liquidation. In the event of any liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of the affairs of the corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, all assets and funds of the corporation remaining after the payment to the holders of the Preferred Shares of all series thereof of the full amounts to which they shall be entitled as hereinafter provided, shall be divided and distributed among the holders of the Common Shares according to their respective shares.

(3) Voting Rights. Each holder of a Common Share shall have one vote in respect of each share of such stock held by him. There shall not be cumulative voting.

B. Preferred Shares. Prior to the issuance of any of the 250,000 authorized Preferred Shares, the Board of Directors shall determine the number of Preferred Shares to then be issued from the total shares authorized, and such shares shall constitute a series of the Preferred Shares. Such series shall have such preferences, limitations, and relative rights as the Board of Directors shall determine and such series shall be given a distinguishing designation. Each share of a series shall have preferences, limitations, and relative rights identical with those of all other shares of the same series. Except to the extent otherwise provided in the Board of Directors' determination of a series, the shares of such series shall have preferences, limitations, and relative rights identical with all other series of the Preferred Shares. Preferred Shares may have dividend or liquidation rights which are prior (superior or senior) to the dividend and liquidation rights and preferences of the Common Shares and any other series of the Preferred Shares, other than the Founder's Series. Also, any series of the Preferred Shares may have voting rights.

ARTICLE V

No holder of the capital stock of the corporation, whether of Common Stock or Preferred Stock, shall have any preemptive right or be entitled as a matter of right to subscribe for or purchase (i) any share of capital stock of any class; (ii) warrants, options, or rights of the corporation; or (iii)

In the event of any delay in holding, or adjournment of, or failure to hold an annual meeting, the terms of the sitting directors shall be automatically continued indefinitely until their successors are elected and qualified. Directors need not be residents of the State of Florida nor shareholders. Any vacancies, including vacancies resulting from an increase in the number of directors, may be filled by the Board of Directors, though less than a quorum, for the unexpired term. The Board of Directors shall have full power, and it is hereby expressly authorized, to increase or decrease the number of directors from time to time without requiring a vote of the shareholders.

ARTICLE VIII

ARTICLE IX

The private property of the shareholders of the corporation shall not be subject to the payment of the corporation's debts to any extent whatsoever.

ARTICLE X

The following indemnification provisions shall be deemed to be contractual in nature and not subject to retroactive removal or reduction by amendment and shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, all statutory authorizations for indemnification of directors and officers:

(a) This corporation shall indemnify any director and any officer who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil or criminal, judicial, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he/she is or was a director or officer of this corporation or was serving at the request of this corporation as a director or officer or member of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement, actually and reasonably incurred by him/her in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, including any appeal thereof, if he/she acted in good faith or in a manner he/she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of this corporation, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, if he/she had no reasonable cause to believe his/her conduct was unlawful. However, with respect to any action by or in the right of this corporation to procure a judgment in its favor, no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person is adjudged liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his/her duty to the corporation unless, and only to the extent that, the court in which such action or suit was brought determines, on application, that despite the adjudication of liability, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity in view of all the circumstances of the case. Termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or in a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the party did not meet the applicable standard of conduct. Indemnification hereunder may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of any action, suit or proceeding, on a preliminary determination that the director, officer, employee or agent met the applicable standard of conduct.

(b) The corporation shall also indemnify any director or officer who has been successful on the merits or otherwise, in defense of any action, suit, or proceeding, or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, against all expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him/her in connection therewith, without the necessity of an independent determination that such director or officer met any appropriate standard of conduct.

(c) The indemnification provided for herein shall continue as to any person who has ceased to be a director or officer, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of such persons.

(d) In addition to the indemnification provided for herein, the corporation shall have power to make any other or further indemnification, except an indemnification against gross negligence or willful misconduct, under any resolution or agreement duly adopted by the Board of Directors, or duly authorized by a majority in voting interest of the shareholders.

ARTICLE XI

No director of the corporation shall be personally liable to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director; provided, that the foregoing clause shall not apply to any liability of a director for any action for which the laws of Florida proscribe this limitation and then only to the extent that this limitation is specifically so proscribed.

ARTICLE XII

In case the corporation enters into contracts or transacts business with one or more of its directors, or with any firm of which one or more of its directors are members, or with any other corporation or association of which one or more of its directors are shareholders, directors, or officers, such contracts or transactions shall not be invalidated or in any way affected by the fact that such director or directors have or may have an interest therein which is or might be adverse to the interest of this corporation, provided that such contracts or transactions are in the usual course of business.

In the absence of fraud, no contract or other transaction between this corporation and any other corporation or any individual or firm, shall in any way be affected or invalidated by the fact that any of the directors of this corporation is interested in such contract or transaction, provided that such interest shall be fully disclosed or otherwise known to the Board of Directors in the meeting of such Board at which time such contract or transaction was authorized or confirmed, and provided, however, that any such directors of this corporation who are so interested may be counted in determining the existence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board of Directors of this corporation which shall authorize or confirm such contract or transaction, and any such director may vote thereon to authorize any such contract or transaction with the like force and effect as if he were not such director or officer of such other corporation or not so interested.

ARTICLE XIII

The Board of Directors, without the consent of the stockholders of the corporation, may adopt any recapitalization affecting the outstanding shares of capital stock of the corporation by effecting a forward or reverse split of all of the outstanding shares of any class of capital stock of the corporation, with appropriate adjustment to the corporation's capital accounts. However, no such recapitalization shall reduce or eliminate any right, power or seniority designated for any class or series.

ARTICLE XIV

The Board of Directors of the Corporation is expressly authorized and empowered to make, alter, amend or repeal the bylaws of the Corporation and to adopt new bylaws.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I, the undersigned, for the purpose of forming a corporation pursuant to the laws of the State of Florida, have hereunto duly executed the foregoing Articles of Incorporation, to be filed in the Office of the Secretary of State of Florida, this 24th day of July, 2017. I submit this document and affirm that the facts stated herein are true. I am aware that the false information submitted in a document to the Department of State constitutes a third degree felony as provided for in Section 817.155 of the Florida Statutes.
