ARTICLE XI

Director Liability

A director of the corporation shall not be personally liable to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for conduct as a director, except for liability of the director for (i) acts or omissions that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law by the director, (ii) conduct which violates Section 607.0831 of the Florida Business Corporation Act, pertaining to unpermitted distributions to shareholders or loans to directors, or (iii) any transaction from which the director will personally receive a benefit in money, property or services to which the director is not legally entitled. If the Florida Business Corporation Act is amended to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Florida Business Corporation Act, as so amended. Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the shareholders of the corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE XII

Indemnification

The corporation shall, to the fullest extent legally permissible under the provisions of the Florida Business Corporation Act, as the same may be amended and supplemented, indemnify and hold harmless any and all persons whom it shall have power to indemnify under said provisions from and against any and all liabilities (including expenses) imposed upon or reasonably incurred by him in connection with any action, suit or other proceeding in which he may be involved or with which he may be threatened, or other matters referred to in or covered by said provisions both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in any other capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer of the corporation. Such indemnification provided shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any Bylaw, Agreement or Resolution adopted by the shareholders entitled to vote thereon after notice.

ARTICLE XIII

Bylaws

The authority to make Bylaws for the corporation is hereby expressly vested in the Board of Directors of this corporation, subject to the power of the shareholders to change or repeal such By-Laws. The Board of Directors shall not make or alter any By-Laws fixing their qualifications, classifications, terms of office or compensation.

ARTICLE XIV

Amendment

The corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in these Articles of Incorporation in the manner now and hereafter prescribed by statute, and all rights conferred on the stockholders and all powers of the directors herein are granted subject to this reservation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned person, of the age of eighteen (18) years or more, as incorporator of this Corporation under the Florida Business Corporation Act, adopts these Articles of Incorporation.

DATED this 20th day of February, 2018.
