The Corporation shall indemnify a present or former Director or Officer of the Corporation in connection with a proceeding to the fullest extent permitted by and in accordance with the Laws of Florida and shall indemnify Directors and Officers as follows:

(a) The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was Director or Officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a Director or Officer of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise. Such indemnification shall be against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of the action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the Corporation; except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue, or matter as to which the person has been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the Corporation, unless and only to the extent that the court in which the action or suit was brought, or a court of equity in the county in which the Corporation has its principal office, determined upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnify for the expenses which the court shall deem proper.

(b) Indemnification under subsection (a) (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in subsection (a). The determination shall be made by the majority vote of a quorum of the Stockholders.

(c) Expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition thereof if authorized in the specific case by a preliminary determination following one of the procedures set forth in the second sentence of subsection (b) that there is a reasonable basis for a belief that the director or officer met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in subsection (a), upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer reasonably assuring that such amount will be repaid unless it shall ultimately be determined that he is entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this section.

(d) Such indemnification provided for in this section shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which such Officer or Director may be entitled, apart from this section, under the charter, any by-law, agreement, vote of disinterested Directors or Stockholders, or as a matter of law or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding the office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and inure to the benefit of the heirs, personal representatives and administrators of the person.

(e) The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a Director or Officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a Director or Officer of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify him against the liability under the provisions of this section.

(f) To the extent that a director, officer, employee or agent of this Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in subsection (a) or (b), or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.
