Gentlemen:

We are in receipt of your e-mail of April 25, 2018 with regard to our creation of Evan B. Plotka, P.A. I am the sole owner of Evan B. Plotka, PLLC, a Florida limited liability company, and I operate my law firm out of that LLC. Recently, in consultation with our accountant, we decided to transfer the law firm operation to a corporation rather than the limited liability company setup we have operated since 2004. The LLC will cease to operate on the date that the Professional Association goes active.

I am the sole incorporator, sole director, sole officer and sole shareholder of Evan B. Plotka, P.A. There should be no concern that the names of the two entities are not distinguishable because anyone seeking out either entity is looking for me. The office location, telephone number, facsimile number, e-mail address will all be transferred from the LLC to the P.A.

A copy of our Detail Sheet for Evan B. Plotka, PLLC, Document Number L04000071617 is attached for your ready reference.

If you have any further questions or concerns, please contact me. Otherwise, I would ask that you complete the filing for Evan B. Plotka, P.A.

Very truly yours,

Evan B. Plotka
