I will add them this time. But they do need to be listed in the articles from now on. I will be adding this email to the records if you want me to add them. Or you can send me updated articles, I can hold the articles until Monday afternoon to give you time to update the articles if that's the route you want to take. Just let me know which way you want it done.

Hi Tim,

Yes, when the client picked up the docs I saw it said his name and President. The client already took the docs this morning and I let him know that I would contact you guys. Can you add him as President since it's listed in the docs or do we have to change something?

Thanks,

Camila Calatayud

You do not have the officers and directors listed in the articles. There is titles by the incorporators name is that what you are referring to? But the articles has not been sent down for imaging at this time, with that being said if you would email new articles with them listed I could replace the articles and add them to the data base.
