Re: The Puerto Rican Vote, Inc., N18000012331

Kyle,

Pursuant to our conversation, this is a follow-up letter regarding the intended use of the above-referenced corporation. The corporation's articles of incorporation were filed on November 20, 2019.

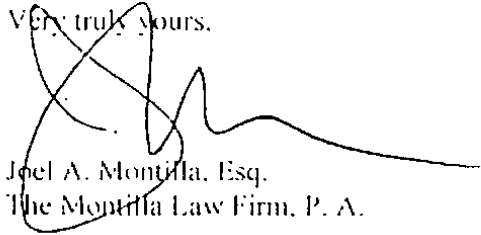

The intent is to dissolve the corporation as a non-profit and re-establish it as a for profit corporation. There is no intent of use to re-open the corporation as a non-profit so it is hereby requested that you release the name so that it can be used for a for profit corporation under the same name.

Additionally, please apply the amounts referenced in the January 4, 2019, letter to the incorporation of The Puerto Rican Vote, Inc., as a for profit corporation and please apply the remaining $17.50 for copies of the new entity once it is established.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to ask. The goal is to have The Puerto Rican Vote, Inc., as a for profit and the only individual that should be listed will be myself, Joel A. Montilla, Esq., as President. There will be no Vice President or other ownership/management at this point; just me.

Please confirm this request when you have received. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

Joel A. Montilla, Esq.
The Montilla Law Firm, P. A.
