ARTICLE III BENEFIT STATEMENT AND BUSINESS PURPOSE

The corporation elects to be a benefit corporation in accordance with s. 607.603, F.S.

The purpose for which the corporation is organized is to create a general public benefit and create an enterprise of businesses among various commercial sectors and industries to provide employment opportunities targeting the most impoverished cities across America. Through effective job creation initiatives, this benefit corporation will empower residents of these cities living near or under the national poverty level. It targets individuals who are unemployed, underemployed, and are without access to vital resources that can help them live more productive lives. Census data alludes to the fact that crime is in direct correlation to the amount of educational and employment opportunities available. The benefit corporation is created to be the solution to this problem by employing the following methods:

1. Create well paying jobs for all persons living near or under the national poverty level.
2. Raise morale and self worth of said persons through training courses and social development.
3. And effectively reduce the rate of crime and violence as a result of employing the aforementioned methods.

The specific public benefit to be created by the corporation is to connect underprivileged persons to opportunities that move them from stagnant and difficult economic conditions to a healthier and more productive lifestyle. The corporation is created to become a conglomerate enterprise covering several industries where the demand for employees is substantially high. Through key partnerships and collaboration with state and federal governmental agencies, fortune 500 companies, and small businesses within that community, the corporation shall bridge the gap between these entities and cause a sustainable economical future for all parties involved. With that said, the corporation's primary goal is to create new investment opportunities for shareholders, stakeholders, and tax collectors alike where no investment opportunity has existed before.
