directors may be increased or decreased from time to time in the manner set forth in the Bylaws of the Corporation.

ARTICLE EIGHT

Provisions for the regulation of the internal affairs of the Corporation will include the following, but such enumeration is not in limitation of the power of the shareholders or the Board of Directors to formulate in the Bylaws, by resolution, or any other proper manner any other lawful provision not inconsistent with law or these articles:

Section 1. Voting. Each outstanding share, regardless of class, will be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote of shareholders. At each election of directors every shareholder entitled to vote at such election will be entitled to vote, in person or by proxy, the number of shares owned by him for each director for whose election he has a right to vote. The right of shareholders to cumulate votes in the election of directors is expressly denied.

Section 2. Bylaws. The Board of Directors will adopt the initial Bylaws, and from time to time may alter, amend or repeal the Bylaws or adopt new Bylaws; but the shareholders from time to time may alter, amend or repeal any Bylaws adopted by the Board of Directors or may adopt new Bylaws.

Section 3. Denial of Preemptive Rights. The shareholders of the Corporation will not have the preemptive right to acquire additional, unissued or treasury shares of the Corporation, or securities of the Corporation convertible into or carrying a right to subscribe to or acquire shares.

Section 4. Limitation of Liability. A director of the Corporation shall not be liable to the Corporation or the shareholders for monetary damages for an act or omission in the director's capacity as a director to the fullest extent allowable under Florida law, except that this section shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for: (i) a breach of a director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its shareholders; (ii) an act or omission not in good faith or that involves intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law; (iii) a transaction from which a director received an improper benefit, whether or not the benefit resulted from an action taken within the scope of the director's office; (iv) an act or omission for which the liability of a director is expressly provided for by statute; or (v) an act related to an unlawful stock repurchase or payment of a dividend.
