or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to, or is involved in any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent permitted by Florida Law; provided that such indemnification will not be provided for any director or officer if a judgment or final adjudication establishes that his or her actions, or omissions to act, were material to the cause of action so adjudicated and constitute (a) a violation of criminal law, unless the director or officer had reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful, (b) a transaction in which the director or officer derived an improper personal benefit, (c) in the case of a director, a circumstance under which the liability provisions of Florida Statute 607.0834 are applicable, or (d) willful misconduct or a conscious disregard for the best interests of the Corporation in a proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor.

(b) The right of any director or officer of the Corporation to indemnification conferred in this Article VI shall also include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in connection with any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition to the fullest extent authorized by Florida Law. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article VI shall be a contract right.

(c) The Corporation may, by action of its Board of Directors, provide indemnification to such of the employees and agents of the Corporation to such extent and to such effect as the Board of Directors shall determine to be appropriate and authorized by Florida Law.

3. Non-exclusivity of Rights. The rights and authority conferred in this Article VI shall not be exclusive of any other right that any person may otherwise have or hereafter acquire.

4. Preservation of Rights. Neither the amendment nor repeal of this Article VI, nor the adoption of any provision of these Articles of Incorporation or the Bylaws, nor, to the fullest extent permitted by Florida Law, any modification of law, shall adversely affect any right or protection of any person granted pursuant to these Articles of Incorporation, arising out of or related to any event, act or omission that occurred prior to the time of any such amendment, repeal, adoption or modification (regardless of when any proceeding (or part thereof) relating to such event, act or omission arises or is first threatened, commenced or completed)..
