ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF
ELIZABETH P. JOHNSON, P.A.

The undersigned incorporator, for the purpose of forming a professional corporation under the provisions of Chapters 607 and 621 of the Florida Statutes, hereby adopts the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I

Name

The name of the corporation is: ELIZABETH P. JOHNSON, P.A.

ARTICLE II

Purpose

The corporation is organized for the purpose of practicing the profession of law. The professional services involved in the corporation's practice of law may be rendered only through its officers, agents and employees who are duly authorized and licensed to practice law in the State of Florida. The corporation shall not engage in any business other than the practice of law, but may invest its funds in real estate, mortgages, stocks, bonds and other types of investments, and may own real and personal property necessary for the rendering of the professional services authorized hereby. Subject to the foregoing, the corporation shall have all corporate powers permitted under the Florida Business Corporation Act, and all amendments and supplements thereto, or any law enacted to take the place thereof (collectively, the "Act").

ARTICLE III

Authorized Capital

The maximum number of shares of stock which the corporation is authorized to issue and have outstanding at any one time is One Thousand (1,000) shares of common stock having a par value of $1.00 per share.

No share of stock of this corporation shall be issued or transferred to any person who is not an attorney duly licensed to practice law in the State of Florida. In the event that a shareholder:

- (i) becomes disqualified to practice law in this State; or
- (ii) sells, transfers, hypothecates or pledges, or attempts to sell, transfer, hypothecate or pledge any shares of stock in this corporation to any person ineligible by law or by virtue of these Articles to be a shareholder in this corporation, or if such sale, transfer, hypothecation or pledge, or attempt to sell, transfer, hypothecate or pledge is made in a manner prohibited by law, or in a manner inconsistent with the provisions of these Articles or the by-laws of this corporation; or

(iii) suffers an execution to be levied upon his or her stock or such stock is subjected to sale or other process, the effect of which is to vest any legal or equitable interest in such stock in some person ineligible by law or by virtue of these Articles to be a shareholder in this corporation, then the stock of such stockholder shall immediately stand forfeited and such stock shall be immediately canceled by this corporation and the shareholder or other person in possession of such stock shall be entitled only to receive payments for the value of such stock which, in the absence of a by-law provision or written agreement between the corporation and its shareholders, or written agreement among its shareholders, shall be the book value thereof as of the last day of the month preceding the month in which any of the events above enumerated occurs. The shareholder whose stock so becomes forfeited and canceled by the corporation shall forthwith cease to be a shareholder and shall accept payment for his or her stock in accordance with the foregoing, and after payment of any other sums then lawfully due and owing to said shareholder by the corporation, such shareholder shall then and thereafter have no further financial interest of any kind in the corporation.

No shareholder of this corporation may sell or transfer any of his or her shares of stock in this corporation except to another individual who is then duly authorized and licensed to practice law in the State of Florida. No shareholder of this corporation may enter into a voting trust agreement or any other type of agreement vesting another person with the authority to exercise the voting power of any or all of his or her stock.

The corporation's board of directors is specifically authorized from time to time to adopt by-laws, not inconsistent herewith, restraining the alienation of shares of stock of this corporation and providing for the purchases or redemption of the corporation of its shares of stock.

ARTICLE IV
