Such agreements may confer upon the corporation or the shareholders or both: an option to purchase or right of first refusal in the event of transfer or encumbrance. Such agreements may include such restrictions during the lifetime and upon the death or legal incompetence of any shareholder. Nothing in the Articles of Incorporation or in the Bylaws shall be construed to authorize a transfer of such share upon the books of the corporation in violation of such agreements.

ARTICLE 12

INDEMNIFICATION

12.1 The corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party to any proceeding (other than an action by the corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a Director, officer or agent (each, an "Indemnitee") of the corporation against liability incurred in connection with such proceeding, including any appeal thereof, if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, or conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation.

12.2 The corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party to any proceeding by the corporation because the person is or was a Director, officer or agent of the corporation against expenses and amounts paid in settlement not exceeding, in the judgment of the Board of Directors, the estimated expense of litigating the proceeding to conclusion, actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of such proceeding, including any appeal thereof. Such indemnification shall be authorized if such person acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification shall be made under this Section with respect to any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable unless, and only to the extent that, the court in which such proceeding was brought, or any other court of competent jurisdiction shall determine that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for the expenses which the court shall deem proper.

12.3 To the extent that a Director, officer, committee member, employee, or agent of the corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any proceeding referred to in Section 12.1. or 12.2, or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

12.4 Any indemnification under Section 12.1 or 12.2, unless pursuant to a determination by a court, shall be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case after a determination that indemnification of the Director, officer or agent is proper under the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 12.1 or 12.2. Such determination shall be made: (A) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of Directors who were not parties to such proceeding; or (B) by independent legal counsel selected (i) by the Board of Directors as described in subsection 12.4.1, or (ii) if a quorum of the Directors cannot be obtained for Subsection 12.4.1, then by a majority of the shareholders of the corporation who were not parties to such proceeding.

12.5 Expenses incurred by an officer or Director in defending a civil or criminal proceeding may be paid by the corporation prior to the final disposition of the proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such Director, officer or committee member, to repay such amount if he is ultimately found not to be entitled to indemnification by the corporation pursuant to this section. Expenses incurred by other employees and agents may be paid in advance upon such terms or conditions that the Board of Directors deems appropriate.

12.6 The indemnification and advance of expenses provided pursuant to this Article 12 are not exclusive, and the corporation may make any other or further indemnification or advance expenses of any of its Directors, officers, or agents, under any bylaw, agreement, vote of Members or disinterested Directors, or otherwise. However, indemnification or advance of expenses shall not be made to or on behalf of any Director, officer, or agent if a judgment or other final adjudication establishes that his actions, or omissions to act, were material to the cause of action so adjudicated and constitute: (i) a violation of the criminal law, unless the Director, officer or agent had reasonable cause to believe his conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful; (ii) a transaction from which the Director, officer or agent derived an improper personal benefit; or (iii) willful misconduct or a conscious disregard for the best interests of the corporation in a proceeding by the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor or in a proceeding by the shareholders of the corporation.

12.7 Indemnification and advance of expenses as provided in this Article 12 shall continue for a Person who has ceased to be a Director, officer or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of such a Person, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified.

12.8 For purposes of this Article 12, the term "expenses" shall be deemed to include reasonable attorneys' fees, paraprofessional fees, and legal costs and expenses, including those for any appeals; the term "Liability" shall be deemed to include any obligation to pay a judgment, settlement, penalty, fine, and expenses actually and reasonably incurred with respect to a proceeding; the term "proceeding" shall be deemed to include any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, mediation, arbitration or other type of proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal; and the term "agent" shall be deemed to include a volunteer.

12.9 Anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding, no amendment to the provision of this Article 12 shall be applicable as to any party eligible for indemnification hereunder who has not given his prior written consent to such amendment.

ARTICLE 13

AUTHORIZED SHARES

The total number of shares that the corporation shall have the authority to issue is 285 shares of no par value common stock. There are currently 254 assigned or sold shares; however, additional shares not to exceed the authorized total of 285 can be assigned or sold. The authorized shares of stock are all of one class with equal voting powers and each such share shall be equal with every other such share.

ARTICLE 14

DISSOLUTION

The corporation may be dissolved with the approval of not less than two-thirds (2/3rds) of the Voting Interests represented at a duly called meeting of the Owners in person or by proxy at which a quorum has been attained. Upon dissolution of the corporation, other than incident to a merger or consolidation, the assets of the corporation shall be dedicated to an appropriate public agency to be used for purposes similar to those for which this corporation was created or granted, conveyed and assigned to any not for profit corporation, association, trust or other organization devoted to similar purposes.
