Unfortunately, the Florida Department of State, Division of Corporations is merely an administrative filing agency. As such, we have no authority to investigate or settle any disputes involving business entities filed or registered with this office. Such disputes are civil matters and must be settled among the parties involved or a court of law.

The notarized statement of fact is posted on the filing. There is no fee to add this statement, therefore your check is being returned. Articles of Dissolution are enclosed if you choose to file and pay the $35.00 fee. That will inactivate the entity you have no knowledge of.

If you have additional questions or need further assistance, please call (850) 245-6059.
