Article 10 - Indemnification

Provided the person proposed to be indemnified satisfies the requisite standard of conduct for permissive indemnification by a corporation as specifically set forth in the applicable provisions of the Florida Business Corporation Act [currently, Subsections 607.0850 (1) and (2) of the Florida Statutes], as the same may be amended from time to time, the Corporation will indemnify its officers and directors and may indemnify employees and agents, from and against all of the expenses and liabilities incurred in defending a civil or criminal proceeding, or other matters referred to in or covered by said provisions, including advancement of expenses before the final disposition of such proceedings and amounts paid in settlement of such proceedings, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office. The indemnification is not exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, the vote of shareholders or disinterested directors or otherwise. The indemnification continues as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent, and inures to the benefit of the heirs, personal representatives of such a person, and an adjudication of liability does not affect the right to indemnification for those indemnified.
