shares were redeemed. If the redemption amount so determined is less than the amount previously paid on any such redemption, the difference shall be a debt payable on demand to the Corporation by the shareholders whose Class G preference shares were redeemed. It is further stated that any subsequent adjustment to the redemption amount as contemplated herein shall not operate to adjust any dividend or dividends previously declared on the Class G preference shares.

5. Subject to the prior claims of the holders of Class F special shares, the holder of each Class G preference share shall be entitled upon the dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the Corporation to receive the pro rata portion of the redemption amount for such share, together with all declared and unpaid dividends accumulated thereon, in preference and priority to the claims of the holders of Class A common shares, Class B common shares, Class C common shares, Class D common shares and Class E common shares.

General:

1. Except as expressly provided herein, the directors may declare and pay dividends on any class of shares of the Corporation to the exclusion of any other class of shares of the Corporation.
