SUBJECT: DAVIS LAW LLC
Ref. Number: W21000114392

We have received your document for DAVIS LAW LLC and your check(s) totaling $105.00. However, the enclosed document has not been filed and is being returned for the following correction(s):

In order to convert the PA needs to be registered. Davis Law and Consulting P.A. is not registered with our office. We do have Davis Law, LLC. Please list an address for the director.

A corporation cannot convert into another Florida profit corporation. Pursuant to s. 607.1115(1), F.S., "the term 'other business entity' means a limited liability company; a common law or business trust or association; a real estate investment trust; a general partnership, including a limited liability partnership; a limited partnership, including a limited liability limited partnership; or any other domestic or foreign entity that is organized under a governing law or other applicable law, provided such term shall not include a corporation and shall not include any entity that has not been organized for profit."

Sections 607.1113, 605.0203, 620.2104, and 620.8914, F.S., require the certificate of conversion to be signed by the converting entity as required by applicable law. If the converting entity is a corporation, the certificate of conversion must be signed by a chairman, vice chairman, officer, director, or an incorporator. If the converting entity is a limited liability company, the certificate of conversion must be signed by an authorized representative. If the converting entity is a general partnership or limited liability partnership, the certificate of conversion must be signed by a general partner. If the converting entity is a limited partnership or limited liability limited partnership, the certificate of conversion must be signed by all of the general partners. If the converting entity is another type of business entity, an authorized person must sign the certificate of conversion.

The registered agent must sign accepting the designation.

Please return your document, along with a copy of this letter, within 60 days or
