ARTICLE VII - POWERS

Without in any particular limiting or restricting any of the objects and powers of the corporation, it is expressly declared that the business or the powers of the company shall be from time to time to do any one or more of all the acts and things set forth here, and all other acts, things and business or businesses in any manner connected therewith, or necessary, incidental, convenient or auxiliary thereto, or calculated directly or indirectly to promote the interests of the corporation or enhance the value of or render profitable and of its property or rights, as such a corporation may lawfully do; and in carrying on its business, or for the purposes of attaining or furthering any of its objects, to do all acts and things, and to exercise all other powers which a co-partnership or natural person could do and exercise, and which now or hereafter may be authorized by law, and either as, or by and through principals, agents, attorneys, trustees, contractors, factors, lessors, lessees, or otherwise, either alone or in conjunction with others and in any part of the world; and in addition to have and exercise all the rights, powers and privileges now or hereafter belonging to or conferred upon corporations organized under the provisions of the law authorizing the formation of such corporations.

In furtherance and not in limitation of the general powers conferred by the State of Florida, and the objects and purposes set forth here, it is expressly provided that this corporation shall also have the following powers: to join or consolidate with, and enter into agreements and cooperative relations, not in contravention of law, with any person, firm, association or corporation in and about the carrying on of all or any part of the purposes of this company; to enter into, make, perform, and carry out contracts of every sort and kind, not prohibited by law, with any person, firm, association or corporation, private, public or municipal, or body politic; to issue bonds, debentures or other obligations of the company, and to contract indebtedness without limit as to amount for any of the objects and purposes of the company, and to secure the same by mortgage or mortgages, deed or deeds of trust, or pledge or lien on any or all of the real and/or personal property of the company; to acquire and undertake all or any part of the business assets and liabilities of any person, firm association or corporation on such terms and Conditions as may be agreed upon, and to pay for the same in cash, stock of this corporation, bonds, or otherwise, subject only to the provisions of the laws of Florida.

This corporation shall have all the powers granted by law and to carry out any of the business, objects and purposes enumerated herein, either within or without the State of Florida. The recitation of the stated powers shall not be deemed to be an inclusive list of powers to be possessed by the corporation but shall be deemed in addition to all other lawful powers not inconsistent with them and shall be conferred upon this corporation by the Statutes of Florida.

Any power attempted to be conferred by the articles of incorporation, which conflicts with a governing statute, is void.

ARTICLE VIII – AMENDING ARTICLES

The corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change, or repeal any provision contained in this certificate of incorporation, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by law, and all rights and powers conferred herein on stockholders, directors, and officers are subject to this reserved power.
