ARTICLE EIGHT STOCK TRANSFER RESTRICTIONS

Except as otherwise provided in these Articles, the Act, the Bylaws or in a separate agreement among the shareholders, no shareholder may sell, assign, pledge, or otherwise transfer any of the Corporation's shares of stock or any right or interest in them, whether voluntarily, by operation of law, by gift, or otherwise.

ARTICLE NINE CERTIFICATES OF STOCK

Notwithstanding any oral or written agreement to the contrary, the Corporation shall not issue stock without certificates, pursuant to Section 607.0626 of the Act. A person or entity who is a prospective shareholder of the Corporation does not attain status as a shareholder unless the Corporation has issued a certificate evidencing the Common Stock owned by that person or entity. The certificate need not be sealed. The certificate may be dated on a date that is different from the date of its execution, and, if so dated, a prospective shareholder's status as a shareholder is thereby made effective retroactively or prospectively according to the date written on the certificate. The certificate shall be in digital form and maintained by the Corporation.

ARTICLE TEN SECURITY INTEREST

No party is granted a consensual security interest in the corporation or its assets to pursue the remedies available to a secured creditor without the written approval of a majority of the corporation's directors.

ARTICLE ELEVEN INCORPORATOR

((H23000392766 3)))

ARTICLE TWELVE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors will have at least one Director and may have more Directors as outlined by the Corporation's Bylaws. Newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the authorized number of Directors or any vacancies in the Board of Directors resulting from death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, removal from office, or other cause will be filled by a majority vote of the remaining Directors, though less than a quorum. These interim Directors will hold office for a term that expires at the next annual or special meeting of shareholders, at which time the shareholders will elect the successors.

The Board of Directors will fix by resolution the compensation or salary paid for attendance at each regular or special meeting of the Board in which a Director actually participates. Each Director will be reimbursed for all out-of-pocket expenses reasonably incurred in connection with performing the duties of a Director.

ARTICLE THIRTEEN LIMITATIONS ON AUTHORITY OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Even after due authorization, approval, or advice of the action by the Board of Directors as required by law, any of the following corporate actions also require approval by the shareholders by an affirmative vote of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast to be effective and valid:

- Election and removal of Directors;
- Dissolution of the corporation; and
- Mergers.

ARTICLE FOURTEEN RELEASE FROM PERSONAL LIABILITY

A Director will not be personally liable to the Corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a Director, except liability for:

- the amount of a financial benefit received by a Director to which he or she is not entitled under Florida law;
- an intentional infliction of harm on the Corporation or the shareholders, individually or collectively;
- any distribution for which a Director votes that is not lawful under Florida law; or
- an intentional violation of criminal law.

((H23000392766 3)))

((H23000392766 3)))

ARTICLE FIFTEEN INDEMNIFICATION

The Corporation must indemnify every Director and/or officer—and his or her heirs, executors, and administrators—against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him or her, as well as any amount paid upon judgment, in connection with any civil or criminal action, suit, or proceeding to which he or she may be made a party by reason of having been a Director or officer of the Corporation. But this indemnification excludes any action resulting in the liability of the Corporation for:

- a financial benefit received by a Director or officer to which he or she is not entitled under Florida law;
- an intentional infliction of harm on the Corporation or the shareholders, individually or collectively;
- any distribution for which a Director or officer votes or approves that is not lawful under Florida law; or
- an intentional violation of criminal law.

ARTICLE SIXTEEN POWER TO ENACT, AMEND, AND REPEAL BYLAWS

The Corporation's Board of Directors holds the exclusive power to make, alter, amend, or repeal the Corporation's Bylaws.

I submit this document and affirm that the facts stated herein are true. I am aware that the false information submitted in a document to the Department of State constitutes a third-degree felony as provided for in §817.155, Florida Statutes.
