ARTICLE SEVEN

SHAREHOLDERS RIGHT

The shareholders of the Corporation shall have the preemptive right to acquire unissued or treasury shares of common stock of the Corporation; provided, however, that there shall be no preemptive right concerning the following:

1. Shares issued as compensation to directors, officers, agents, or employees of the Corporation, its subsidiaries, or affiliates.
2. Shares issued to satisfy conversion or option rights created to provide compensation to directors, officers, agents, or employees of the Corporation, its subsidiaries, or affiliates; and
3. Shares issued in connection with a merger, share exchange, or acquisition or sold otherwise than for money.

ARTICLE EIGHT

LIMITATION OF DIRECTORS LIABILITY

A director shall not be liable to the Corporation or its shareholders for money damages for any action taken, or any failure to take any action, as a director, except liability for (i) the amount of financial benefit received by a director to which he is not entitled; (ii) intentional infliction of harm on the Corporation or its shareholders; (iii) a violation of Section 607.0834 of the Florida Statutes, as amended; or (iv) an intentional violation of criminal law.

The Corporation shall indemnify and hold harmless any persons (or the heirs, executors and administrators of any person) who was or is a party to, or is threatened to be made a party to, and threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether or not by or in the right of the Corporation, and whether civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or otherwise, formal or informal (a "Proceeding"), by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or any of its subsidiaries, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation or any of its subsidiaries as a director, officer, partner, fiduciary, trustee, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against any obligation to pay a judgment, settlement, penalty, fine (including an excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) or reasonable expenses (including legal fees) incurred with respect to the proceeding: (A) to the fullest extent permitted by the Florida Business Corporations Act in effect from time to time (the "Act") and (B) despite the fact that such person has failed to meet the standard of conduct set forth in the Act, or would be disqualified for indemnification under the Act because he was adjudged liable to the Corporation in connection with a Proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation or was otherwise adjudged liable on the basis that he improperly received a personal benefit, or for any other reason, if a determination is made by (i) the board of directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors not at the time parties to the Proceeding, (ii) if a quorum cannot be obtained under (i), by a majority vote of a committee duly designated by the board of directors (in which designation directors who are parties may participate), consisting of two or more directors not at the time parties to the Proceeding, (iii) by special legal counsel (a) selected by the board of directors or its committee in the manner prescribed in (i) or (ii) or (b) if a quorum of the board of directors cannot be obtained under (i) and a committee cannot be designated under (ii), selected by a majority vote of the full board of directors (in which selection directors who are parties may participate), (iv) by the shareholders (but shares owned by or voted under the control of directors who are at the time parties to the Proceeding may not be voted on the determination) or (v) by a court, that the acts or commissions of the director, officer, employee or agent did not constitute gross negligence or willful misconduct. The Corporation upon request shall pay or reimburse such person for his reasonable expenses (including legal fees) in advance of final disposition of the Proceeding as long as (i) such persons furnishes the Corporation a written undertaking, executed personally or on his behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined by a judgment or other final adjudication that his acts or omissions did constitute gross negligence or willful misconduct, which undertaking must be an unlimited general obligation of such person, and which shall be accepted by the Corporation without reference to final ability to make repayment or to collateral and (ii) a determination is made by any of the persons described in (i) through (iv) of the preceding sentence that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under this ARTICLE EIGHT. Such request need not be accompanied by the affirmation otherwise required by the Act.

Neither the amendment nor repeal of this ARTICLE EIGHT, nor the adoption or amendment of any other provision of the Corporation's By-Laws or the Articles of Incorporation inconsistent with this ARTICLE EIGHT, shall apply to or affect in any respect the applicability of the preceding two paragraphs with respect to any act or failure to act which occurred prior to such amendment, repeal or adoption.

The foregoing right of indemnification or reimbursement shall not be exclusive of other rights to which such persons may be entitled as a matter of law.

The Board of Directors or shareholders of the Corporation may adopt a policy for the indemnification of directors, officers, employees and agents of the Corporation, and they from time to time see necessary or prudent in the best interest of the Corporation.

The Corporation may, upon the affirmative vote of a majority of its Board of Directors, purchase insurance for the purpose of indemnifying its directors, officers, and other employees to the extent that such indemnification is allowed in the preceding paragraphs. Such insurance may, but need not be for the benefit of all directors, officers, or employees.

ARTICLE NINE
INCORPORATOR

The name and the address of the incorporator are:

Temia C. Sibley
11367 OLD ST. AUGUSTINE ROAD
JACKSONVILLE, FL 32258

INCORPORATOR: Temia C. Sibley Date: 11-25, 2024.

ARTICLE TEN
SPECIAL MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Except as otherwise required by law, special meetings of shareholders of the Company may be called only by (i) the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution approved by a majority of the entire Board of Directors, (ii) the Company's Chief Executive Officer or (iii) the holders of at least one-third of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company.

ARTICLE ELEVEN
INDEMNIFICATION

The company shall indemnify and advance expenses to, and may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of, its officers and directors to the fullest extent permitted by law as now or hereafter in effect. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Company's Bylaws (the "Bylaws") may provide for indemnification and advancement of expenses to officers, directors, employees, and agents on such terms and conditions as the Board of Directors may from time to time deem appropriate or advisable.

ARTICLE TWELVE

BYLAWS

The Board of Directors shall have the power to adopt, amend, or appeal the Bylaws or any part hereof. Specific provisions of the Bylaws, as stated therein, may not be altered, amended, or repealed except by an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company entitled to vote at a shareholders' meeting duly called for such purpose. Except for such provisions requiring a two-thirds vote to alter, amend, or repeal, the Bylaws may be altered, amended, or repealed, and new bylaws may be adopted by the shareholders upon the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company entitled to vote at a shareholders' meeting duly called for such purposes.

Notwithstanding anything contained in these Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation to the contrary, this Article TWELVE shall not be altered, amended, or repealed except by an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company entitled to vote at a shareholders' meeting duly called for such purpose.
