Article IX—Other Provisions

(a) Duration. The duration of the Corporation shall be perpetual, commencing on the date these Articles of Incorporation are filed with the Florida Department of State, unless sooner dissolved or terminated in accordance with applicable law.

(b) Board of Directors. Except as otherwise provided by law, the bylaws, or by shareholders' agreements (if any and each as may be amended from time to time and at any time), the business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by, or under the direction of, the Board of Directors. The number of directors shall be specified in the bylaws, or as otherwise determined in accordance with Florida Statutes, and may be increased or decreased as provided therein.

(c) Limitation of Director Liability. Pursuant to Chapter 607 and/or Chapter 621, Florida Statutes (or any successor provision), no director shall be personally liable to the Corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for any statement, vote, decision, or failure to act regarding corporate management or policy, except to the extent that such liability may not be eliminated or limited under Florida law.

(d) Indemnification of Directors, Officers, Employees, and Agents.

(i) Scope of Indemnification. The Corporation shall indemnify and hold harmless its directors and officers to the fullest extent provided by the laws of the State of Florida, as they may be amended from time to time, and may indemnify other persons in accordance with such laws.

(ii) Advancement of Expenses. Reasonable expenses incurred by a director or officer of the Corporation who is a party to a proceeding shall be paid or reimbursed by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding, upon receipt by the Corporation of a written undertaking from such director or officer to repay the amounts advanced if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer is not entitled to indemnification under Chapter 607 and/or Chapter 621, Florida Statutes.

(iii) Non-Exclusivity. The rights to indemnification and advancement of expenses conferred in this section shall not be exclusive of any other right that any person may have or acquire under any statute, provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the bylaws, or any agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise.

(e) Unanimous Written Consents in Lieu of Meeting. Any action required or permitted by law or these Articles of Incorporation to be taken at a meeting of the shareholders or Board of Directors, as the case may be, may be taken without a meeting if one or more written consents describing the action taken are signed by all persons entitled to vote on the action. Such consents shall be delivered to the Corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the Corporation's records, and the action shall be deemed effective as of the date specified in the consent(s), or if no date is specified, on the date the last person required to reach unanimity signs the consent. A signed consent may be delivered in paper or electronic form, or in any manner permitted by applicable law, and such delivery shall be as valid and effective as a signature delivered in person.

(f) Amendments. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Corporation reserves the right to amend or repeal any provision contained in these Articles of Incorporation, or any amendment hereto, and to adopt additional provisions in these Articles of Incorporation in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by law. All rights of shareholders are granted subject to this reservation.

(g) Governing Law. These Articles of Incorporation shall be construed in accordance with, and governed by, the laws of the State of Florida without regard to conflicts of law principles.
