Dear Sir:

Please be advised that the original Annual Reports for the above listed corporations were never received. Although the address is correct on these second notices, we were previously located in Deerfield, FL and possibly the originals may have been sent there

In conversation with Christy W. from the telephone number listed on the report, she advised me to enclose a check for $150.00 for each corporation, and write a letter of explanation to the correspondence address on the report and it would be reviewed.

I have enclosed the checks and reports and would appreciate your contacting me if there is anything further we may need to do. Thank you

Sincerely,

Sally L. Dunham
