Dear Sir or Madam:

Enclosed you will find the 1998 Profit Corporation Annual Report for Delray Intracoastal Corporation, as well as a check for the filing fee of $150.00.

I realize this return is late, and the filing fee for late returns is now $550.00. However, I ask that you give consideration to the extenuating circumstances causing the tardiness of the return.

I started working for this company on April 13, 1998 and was informed that all corporate reports required by various states had been filed. Therefore, I did not review the Florida file to see that the enclosed report had not been filed. In addition, whenever the forms were mailed, they were delivered to another company within our building. The forms remained with the other company until someone brought them to me yesterday.

Because of the delivery error and the change of personnel within our company, I request that you waive the late filing fee for Delray Intracoastal Corporation.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Lisa D. Grieve
