Re: Donbar Corp.
Ref. Number: P32147

Dear Sir or Madam:

We previously wrote to you explaining the late filing of the Annual Report and requested that the taxpayer not be penalized for the late filing. You rejected our request and sent back the reports for additional payment. I want to clarify and further explain the reason for the late filing and request an abatement of the late filing fee.

The address on the Annual Report is that of the taxpayer's former accountants. In November, 1997, the taxpayer decided to change accounting firms and engaged our firm as their new accountants. Unfortunately, the transition was not smooth as the former accountants were not cooperative in remitting information and documents to us. When we began preparing the corporate tax returns for the taxpayer in June, 1998, we inquired about the filing of the Annual Reports which apparently were being held by the former accountants. We finally received the Reports and immediately completed them and filed them with the appropriate fee. Since we, as the representative of the taxpayer, did not receive this form in a timely manner, it would be unfair to the taxpayer to penalize them for circumstances beyond their control. The taxpayer has always complied with their filing requirements, and it would cause a hardship to penalize them especially considering these special circumstances. Therefore, we respectfully request that you abate the late filing fee.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Very truly yours,
Bloom Hochberg & Co., P.C.
