Dear Sir/Madam:

Enclosed herewith please find the corporate filings for three of my corporations, Canine Counselors, Inc., Canine Counselors of America, Inc. and Good Dog Training, Inc.

The purpose of my letter is to respectfully request a special consideration regarding the lateness of our corporate renewals. On April 9, 1999 my office manager/vice president of twelve years, Julie Hatton, quit without notice which needless to say left my companies in quite a distressful state. With no other alternative I was forced to contract a temporary service, (Girl Friday) and during the following two months had a total of four temporary (fairly incompetent) workers in my office. Finally I have gotten things turned around and one of my original employees from the mid 80's has returned. Recently our accountant called regarding the status of our corporate renewals. Our accountant had always handled this in the past and since I had signed the renewals back in March I thought the renewals had been taken care of. I immediately began to investigate and apparently, one of the temporary workers filed the renewal packets away.

We are a very small employer who has been conducting business in Florida since 1982. With the recent turnover in our company we lost a few of our employees due to their loyalty to our former office manager, Julie. This entire situation has been both emotionally and financially devastating and as a result of the above, we are struggling just to stay in business. I am appealing to you for special consideration and respectfully ask if you might possibly waive the late fees due to our most extenuating circumstances. If you check your records, you will see that we have never been late with our previous corporate filings and any assistance that you could provide by waiving the late penalties would be greatly appreciated.

Thank you for your assistance and I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Robert D. Ward
President
