To Whom It May Concern:

I would like to direct this letter to a manager or supervisor at the Division of Corporations... My_corporation is named Villwock and Associates. My name is Cathy Sheffer and I am the president of the corporation. I have incorporated my business which is court reporting. I have paid the annual filing fee on time since the inception in 1992.

I would like to outline some reasons for the fee not being filed on time this year. I understand that a late fee should be imposed, but am finding the $400 fee a hardship and would like to see if some consideration could be given to my particular individual situation.

My divorce was final in December of 1998. In April of 1999, my ex-husband announced that he was marrying our former aupair. This was very devastating to me and I had to go back into counseling at that time.

This winter has been extremely stressful for me and there seemed to be a lot of things that did not get done around here on a timely basis. Sending in the corporate filing fee slipped through the cracks and I didn't realize it until I received the late notice. I have been trying to get the $400 together and even called to see if I could be put on some sort of a payment plan, but was told I had only until September 15.

I would be happy to discuss this situation further. Please let me know if there is anything else you need from me in making some sort of decision.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,

Cathy Sheffer 925 N.W. 7th Court
