To Whom It May Concern:

We received the second notice for our 2003 Uniform Business Report, stating that we owe $550.00 to file. Please be aware that we never received the first uniform business report. Our mail was being forwarded to our previous accountant, and not to us. We now have a new accountant, and everything should be going to our address above. We have included the original filing fee of $150.00, as well as the signed application. We ask that you please accept this in order to keep our corporation active.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

William C Smith
