Dear Sirs:

Re: Deering PR, Inc.
EIN 58-2031309

Enclosed is a 2000 Uniform Business Report (UBR) for the above referenced corporation as well as a check for $150.00 as payment of the annual fee for 2000. We are writing on behalf of the above referenced corporation to request leniency with respect to the additional fee added for failure to comply by May 1, 2000.

Our office received the enclosed form however after much investigation we have not been able to verify how or from whom it was received. The place of business indicated on the form is not the present address of the entity as the offices have been relocated to a new address. We believe that the form may have been forwarded to the registered agent by the current occupant of the previous address. The form may have then been routed to our office. Because of the delay in ultimately receiving the document, as well as the fact that we have never been asked to participate in the filing of these documents in previous years, the deadline for filing had passed without the proper individuals being notified of its existence.

We respectfully request that you accept this document as timely filed and reduce the fee to the amount due prior to May 1, 2000. Please be advised that enclosed report now reflects the correct address and that the responsible parties have been notified and procedures established to ensure timely filing in the future.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Ricardo A. Gonzalez', written over a printed name and title.
