RE: QUALITY MATRIX INTERNATIONAL CORPORATION

Dear Sir or Madam:

I was horrified to find out that you had mailed my corporation renewal forms which were to be completed by me and returned to you along with my check for $200.00 before March. Apparently this initial renewal form never reached my offices.

As you can see from my mailing address, my bay is one of many bays in an industrial park where my business is located. Many times my mail is not received by me and I have complained to the post office about this. Sometimes the mail is handdelivered to me by other tenants, and I'm afraid at times the mail is just thrown away.

In any event, I did not receive the first renewal form you sent me. For that reason I hope that you will accept my completed form along with my check for $200.00 for purposes of maintaining my corporation status current. I am unfortunately not in a very good financial position now and would not be able to renew same if any other fees are charged.

I appreciate any forbearance of additional fees you could grant me at this time. Thank you for your anticipated cooperation.

Respectfully,

Heriberto R. Cruz
