Dear Sir:

Yesterday our corporation received a 2nd notice for the 1999 Profit Corporation Annual Fee. We have searched our records and do not find that we ever received the initial notice. This is not something that we treat lightly as one year we did file late due to a bookkeeping error and our accountant still breaks out in a sweat just thinking about it.

When I spoke to someone in your office, she advised us to send a check for $150.00 to this address along with a plea for mercy. Please accept this and we certainly will do as she suggested and verify the arrival of the report packet in February to be sure it has arrived.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Jan Davis Brown". The signature is fluid and stylized, with the first and last names being more prominent.

Jan Davis Brown
President
