Dear Sir/Madam:

Enclosed is a check for $150.00 for my Uniform Business Report. I am late and recognize the penalty is $400.00. This letter is an appeal for grace to waive this penalty. We have in the last six months undergone serious cash-flow problems in a recreational industry that has become particularly sensitive to our current economy. I am a one-man operation and rely on outside prompts to help me fulfill company obligations in a timely manner. Although Mr. David Boggs is the attorney of record as our registered agent, he had passed this responsibility on to Mr. Stephen Pankau in his office. Earlier this year, Mr. Pankau died of cancer and our report simply fell through the cracks. In 18 years of reporting for two different companies, I have never been late—until now. I earnestly appeal to you for a measure of grace to dismiss the penalty incurred for the filing of a document I discovered two days ago. If the enclosure of a check for $150.00 appears presumptuous, I apologize. It was not intended to be so.

Your help in this matter would be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

G.E. Houts
