Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing this letter to request waiver of late fees to reinstate this corporation. In the spring of 2001 my husband and I separated and he requested a change of address for the mail. This change of address caused many problems with the delivery of both personal and business mail for many months. I was not aware of the time frame or need for filing a reinstatement for a corporation each year, therefore, I was not watching the mail for this document. I did not receive a document package until October 2001. When I did receive the form in October, I sent it out with the amount I thought was needed for this. It was returned to me with a request for additional fees.

After speaking with one of your agents on the phone, it was suggested that I send this letter along with a check for $300.00. I am hopeful that this will be accepted by your office and reinstatement granted for The Learning Tree Developmental Learning Center. I now have full control of the corporation and in the future will file all documents in a timely manner.

Sincerely,

Priscilla A. Whelpley
