Re: Simonton Worldwide Trading Corporation

Dear Sir or Madam:

Enclosed please find the Corporation Reinstatement form for the above referenced corporation, along with a check in the amount of $300.00 for the filing of same as directed by your representative over the telephone.

Our client recently became aware that the above corporation had been administratively dissolved for failure to file an annual report. Although our client mailed the annual report prior to the due date along with their check (#103) in the amount of $150.00, apparently, the annual report and check were not received by your offices. Unfortunately, the mailing address for the corporation was being monitored by a third party who was to collect and forward important mail to the corporation's principals. The notice sent by the Division of Corporations reflecting the delinquent status of the annual report was not forwarded and was only received by our client several weeks ago. You will note that the corporate mailing address has been changed in the reinstatement form to prevent future problems.

Thank you for your prompt attention and consideration. If you have any questions or require additional information, please do not hesitate to call.

Sincerely,

JAMES S. LUPINO, ESQUIRE
