Re: Document # P93000016601

Dear Sir/Madam:

I recently received a notice regarding the UBR filing for Alpha Global. I apologize for not filing at the required time. I have always filed on time, but this year the oversight was accidental, for several reasons.

First, we did not previously put our suite number on our address, since we always received mail just using the building address. Evidently, this has caused a problem in our obtaining mail, and I did not get the late notices. I have specified the suite number on this year's filing.

Also, we didn't notice that we weren't receiving mail because the company has been completely inactive all year. We no longer have an accounting staff person, who previously would alert me to the filing deadline, and since we weren't getting mail, I was unaware that the deadline had passed.

I hope you will forgive the penalties, particularly in light of the fact that we didn't get the notices, and haven't had any revenues this year, and accept our filing fee. We hope, as the economy gains strength, that we may find a suitable economic climate in which to resume business.

Thank you for your kind consideration.

Sincerely,

Gary S. Winer, Vice President
