Gentlemen:

I am herewith submitting check # 1526, in the sum of $150.00, for the annual filing fee for the Uniform Business Report for this corporation.

Please be advised that the original notice of filing was not received by us. The Postal Service has installed additional mail boxes in our complex, to accomodate new buildings. Unfortunately, many box numbers were duplicated in the process, and a significant amount of mail was misdirected, and even lost. The Uniform Business Report notice appears to have been but one of those lost items.

I have filed a complaint with the local postal service, and they are attempting to recover some of the lost mail, and correct the confusing delivery service.

I respectfully request that any late fees be waived, with respect to the filing of this report.

Sincerely,

G. Schmitz
