Dear DOC,

We did not receive the original copy of the "2000 Uniform Business Report" as explained in the enclosed copy of two e-mails one to Katherine Harris and the other an e-mail reply from Jennifer.

As per Jennifer's instructions we are also enclosing our check #5124 for $150.00.

Thank you very much.

Regards,

Richard D. Knapp
President

If you did not receive the first notice report for your corporation, you may attach a letter to your completed report stating this information. If you include this letter and the $150 fee with your report, you will not be charged the late fee.

The state mails the reports as a courtesy. It is the responsibility of the corporation to ensure that the reports are filed each year before May 1st.

Dear Secretary Harris,

On Saturday, the 8th of July, we received your Second Notice for the year 2000 Division of Corporations Report. What happened to the original request ??.....this is now the second time we have not received the original request. This happened in 1996 and 1997 ...this is not fair or proper. Where are these mailings going or are you sure these are being sent? Please advise what the "original" cost is ?.....the second notice shows $550.00, which I do not want to pay of it is more than the original !.....Thank you.....
