Pursuant to my receiving my annual return on 7/9/00, immediately called the Division of Corporations, since the mailing was late and was a 2nd notice. I had changed my mailing address in September of 1999. The Division of Corporations informed me that they do not forward mail. I was then instructed to attach a letter to the above and remit a check for $150.00, which I immediately Did.

In October I received in the mail my check back and the letter attached. Again I called the Division of Corporations. They informed me no letter was Attached to my check and to resubmit with a letter, and my check of $150.00 And they would reinstate my Corporation.
