To Whom It May Concern,

This morning I telephoned your office and spoke to Stacy. I explained to her that I began filling out my corporate report and noticed that the filing fee seemed high! I also noticed "2nd notice" on my cover.

I told Stacy that we've been incorporated since April 6, 1993 and if she checked back she would see that we've never filed late. Our first report never came to us for 1997.

Stacy suggested that I write a letter of explanation and send it along with my report and include a check for $165., which I did.

I apologize for not realizing that my first report for 1997 did not arrive in the mail. I guess in the midst of running a business day to day, I overlooked it, but I do know for a fact that we never received it.

I am asking for your help and consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,
Carol M. Weston
Superintendent Manager
