Dear Mrs. Hood:

One of my agents brought in the mail and said it was probably all junk mail, but I might want to look at it anyway. Much to my surprise was the "Notice of Intent to Dissolve".

I immediately contacted my accountant who said that forms were not sent out this year, but instead post cards were mailed. I never saw the card and consequently did not realize that I needed to file the report.

From now on, it is on my calendar to download the report, so that I will not have to rely on others to properly sort my mail.

Enclosed is check #5716 for $150.00. You will note in my record that this has always been paid in a timely manner in previous years, and will be in the future.

Sincerely,

Janet K. Bancroft
