Gentlemen,

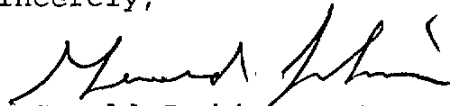

I am the accountant for PSG Properties, Inc. Patrick S. Goodbread, the sole stockholder, and myself sat down today to complete his personal tax return, which is under extension. I reviewed his tax correspondence, as we always do when we get together for the corporate and personal tax returns. We were shocked that a second notice for the corporation annual report was included in the package.

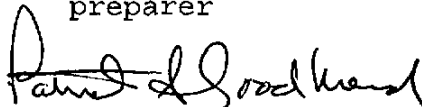

Patrick has always used his personal address for the corporation which is 6120 Judy Drive, Jacksonville, FL. This year he was married and he does not live at the address but continues to pick up his mail there.

Because of the way which I review his tax related mail, and because He saves it for me to review, and because We were together in March of 1997 for that purpose, We are both convinced that prior notice for the 1997 annual report was not received by mail. The 1996 annual report was paid on March 26, 1996 in a similar meeting where I reviewed his tax related mail.

Please abate the penalty which has been charged because he did not receive the prior notice by mail and accept his check for $165.00 for the corporation's 1997 annual report.

Sincerely,

Gerald Jenkins, return preparer

Patrick S. Goodbread
