Re: 1998 Corporation Annual Report

Gentlemen:

Enclosed herewith please find my corporate annual return along with my check in the amount of $150.00 representing the original amount due and owing. It appears that not only did I not receive the original notice, but am now being penalized due to it. I have checked with my office, along with my bookkeeping who pays all of the bills, and NO such notice was received in this office, as I have a very strict policy regarding payment of bills and that is for them to be paid the moment I receive them.

I have contacted your office and was advised due to my circumstances, to file the notice with the original fee due. If this is not possible and my notice is returned unfiled, please be advised I do not wish to continue as a corporation and will let the corporation dissolve.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

Juana M. Rojas
